

Dissolved Oxygen Data for Coos Estuary (Oregon)

Cheryl Brown

The purpose of this product is the transmittal of dissolved oxygen data collected in the Coos Estuary, Oregon to Ms. Molly O'Neill (University of Oregon), for use in her studies on the factors influencing spatial and temporal patterns in dissolved oxygen in this estuary. These data were previously published in Brown and Lee (2011); and are component of research being conducted under SSWR2.3A.