

CORROSION CONTROL 101: A JOURNEY IN REDISCOVERY

The presentation covers the general water chemistry of lead and copper, how contamination originates from home plumbing systems, what treatments are appropriate for controlling lead and copper to meet the Lead and Copper Rule, and what water quality and treatment factors directly impact the success and failure of corrosion control treatment.

This talk re-introduces the overriding principles of corrosion control treatment to a water industry audience.